Foreword

The conquest of difficulties has ever been the path to progress. A sublime example of successful and conspicuous achievement in the face of apparently insurmountable obstacles has been presented to us in our very midst by a dearly-loved friend and associate. The life of the school has been wonderfully enriched by Mr. Reg. Hammond's presence among us. His influence and example will be a memorial "more lasting than brass and soaring higher than the regal elevation of the pyramids."

Valedictory

WE, THE GRADUATING CLASS of 1952, have reached what might be called the cross-roads of our lives. Are we to continue along the same road or are we to turn in another direction? We can't go back.

The decision rests on our shoulders. We are taking our places in an adult world and each of us will have to accept the responsibility for his decisions and actions.

We are not afraid, but we do admit that we are a bit bewildered. We acknowledge, too, that from our teachers we have received constant guidance and inspiration. They and our parents have done their best. The rest is up to us.

We do not know what the future holds in store for us but we will face it confidently, fortified by the pleasant memories of youth and the warm friendship of schoolmates.

FRENCH — Past and Present

(With humble apologies to Thomas Hood)

I remember, I remember,
At least, I hope I do,
That the French article is "un,"
And "you" is "tu" or 'vous,"
That I must not say 'mon nom est"
But always 'je m'appelle,"
That when we speak of Monsieur Murphy
We must us 'il" not "elle."

"Midi" means noon—that's twelve o'clock
"Le Midi"—southern France.
What fool called this (poor misled man)
The language of Romance?
And that's not all, take spelling
Boy! That gets in my hair.
By that I mean "mes chevaux Bruns"
Or should "cheveux" be there?

Ah verbs, ah verbs, those jolly words
You know,—irrégulier"?
What fun it is to muse for hours
That sneaky tense to snare.
What fun to study through the night
For the coming "examen"
With ice-bags placed upon the brow
'Til eyestrain heralds dawn.

I remember, I remember
When I was just a boy,
To learn a foreign language
Seemed to me the height of joy.
But now that I have tried it,
—And oh how it tries me—
Perhaps I should have signed up for Industrial Artistry.

BOYS' HI-Y

Another successful year was experienced by the boys' Hi-Y clubs, Alpha and Beta, whose combined efforts have contributed greatly to the school and the members themselves. Alpha, under the guidance of Mr. L. J. Wallace, and led by hard-working Jack Ward, compiled a programme for the Island Basketball Tournament and realized an appreciable amount from the sales. Beta, sponsored by Mr. S. Murphy and presided over very capably by Ted Whan, presented the Totems with a bench blanket and profited on the sale of pop and coat checking at school functions. Both clubs donated an appreciable amount to the World Wide Youth Fund. Working in close association in running the Midway, the clubs assisted considerably in the success of the Circus.

Highlighting the social events were the annual Hi-Y conference held in Seattle in May, the popular March Co-ed and inter-club bowling league designed to bring the members of the various clubs together in recreation.

GIRLS' HI-Y

Under the expert guidance of their three sponsors, the Girls' Hi-Y have had a very successful year. The four clubs combined to make the Spring Co ed held on May 2 a great success. Throughout the year the girls in white and navy have been seen ushering and serving at school functions. They sold candy, ice cream and cakes and petrified the whole school with their "Tax Week." Checking at dances and a "Mystery Man Contest" were two of the year's highlights. On April 2 a Hudson's Bay sponsored Fashion Show was presented at the Y.W.C.A., with eight Hi-Y girls as models. And for a change from work, twelve lucky girls travelled to Vancouver for the annual Mid-Winter Conference, and two very lucky girls travelled to Calgary to attend the Alberta Conference as guests. Hi-Y continues through the summer, however, with Hi-Y camp held this year for the last week in August.

Majorettes

Accompanied by drummer Bill Sturrock, the high-stepping gals in red and white have earned an "A" for school spirit this year. Sponsored by Miss McKee, these Friday night high-lights have performed at 15 basketball games, besides assisting at many other school functions. Along with their captain, Shirley Rowe, Betty Lim, Sharon Malcom, Margaret Wilson, Joan Hutchinson, Joy Russell, Louella Kalk, Virginia Barry, Gumbia Fong and Shirley Waring all deserve hearty thanks and many congratulations for their performances during the year.

Cheer Leaders

Through '51-'52, Vic High harvested another bumper crop of cheering enthusiasm, thanks to our six vivacious cheer leaders, Gerry Bilou, Gerry Koski, Eddie Lou, Belle Luscombe, Noreen Wheeler, and Paul Whitehouse. Their never-ending shouts and original routines made them favourites not only with our own fans but also with the opposition's. On the court beside the Totems, on the field beside the Reps, and at pep meets, they kindled the spark of school spirit which usually needs just a little fanning. Theirs is a job well done.

Drama

Heading an impressive list of productions staged by the Drama classes this year was the Spring Play, "Our Town."

With a cast of forty-five under the direction of Mr. Mayne and Mrs. De la Mare, the Thornton Wilder production was the department's largest undertaking.

Revolving around a theme of small town life, the fast-moving vehicle, which was voted the most popular United States High School play, appeared here March 7 and 8.

Faith Keifer, playing Emily, proved to be such a versatile and capable actress that few could believe that it was her first dramatic endeavour.

Act III of "Our Town" was entered in the School Drama Festival and appeared at Oak Bay High School on Thursday, March 27.

Next on the list of school theatricals came that unforgettable saga of the knights of the road, the "Hobo Hamature Hour," which netted over $200 for the circus.

Other endeavours on the part of our would-be thespians included class room scenes, short skits and publicity efforts for the Circus, sporting events and fund-raising drives.

Calamity Players

Some of the school's best talent in the field of humour and burlesque comedy have been enticed into the ranks of the Calamity Players.

Under the generalship of Ian Parker and his worthy colleague Rod Shearing, the Players succeeded in producing several riotous noon hour "pep meets."

In an effort to re-educate the masses of the old alma mater, the Calamatites presented a notable version of Shakespeare's "Hamlet."

Also among their presentations was a class room scene designed to induce people to contribute things to the Circus.

Said Players' director, Parker, in commenting on the success of this year's endeavours: "It has been lots of fun. I had a swell bunch of kids to work with and all I can say is that I hope to produce even better 'meets' during my next nine years here."

Camosunet

Even though there were no cases of "man bites dog" reported at the school last year it did not prevent Editors Anne Pomeroy and Sandy Lawrence from turning out several action-packed editions of the "Camosunet."

Responsible for gathering the ads which adorned the paper's pages were Business Manager George Price and his crew of aggressive salesmen.

Covering sports events were Ted Whan, Ian Glenday and Barry Jenner, while events of social importance were handled by Margo Wells and Donna Lea Harrison.

Incidentally, clothing expert Donna's column was also widely read as were the "Hit Parade," "Cupid's Corner" and "Birthday Briefs" columns.

Much of the credit for the publication of the journal should go to those unsung (and generally unknown) members of Mr. Murphy's journalism classes who did the leg work which is attached to the gathering of news items.

Junior Red Cross

Under the sponsorship of Miss Van Engel, the Victoria High branch of the Junior Red Cross has enjoyed a varied programme.

Officers consist of: Peter Jackman, President; Sylvia Berg, Vice-President; Shirley Ayton, Secretary; and Lorna Stuart ,Treasurer.

Chief money-raising projects this year were tag days, gum-chewing fines, and pop-corn sales at Friday night basketball games.

Aid to European children was the main project undertaken. The Club bought toys for these children and also collected a portfolio of pictures to exchange with a European High School.

Local service activities included a clothing drive, a pocket book drive for the veterans, and aid to the Red Cross Blood Campaign. Apart from this the Club sponsored recorded American high school music.

Lorna Stuart

ORCHESTRA

Under the baton of Miss Dorothy Hopgood, the orchestra has enjoyed a very successful year. The entire orchestra performed at the Parents Reception and School Concert as well as many morning assemblies. From the orchestra, the Junior and Senior Ensemble were formed. These two groups will compete in the Victoria Music Festival and the Senior Group, along with the quintette, will compete in the B.C. Music Festival in Vancouver. Members of the orchestra this year were:

VIOLINS:—Bernard Rain (concert master), Jean McGinnis, Doug Ericson, Marlene Vance, Barbara Coleman, Martha Worthy, Linda Wolfe, Violet Pethard, Ron Robinson, Terry Logan, Eleanor Wilson, Kathy Clarke, Janet Allan, Elizabeth Clarke.

CLARINET:—Dennis Tupman, Russ Gurney.

CELLO:—Ron McKenzie, John Gittens, Sylvia Gough,

VIOLA:—Mary Cameron, Ches Powers.

TROMBONE:—Allan Grant.

FRENCH HORN:—George Wolsey, Dick Drysdale.

TRUMPET:—Jon McKinnon, Arnie Mason.

TUBA:—Jerrold Bone.

SAXOPHONE:—Derek Olson.

PIANO:—John Gittens.

MUSIC CLASSES

Under the capable leadership of Mrs. Wood and Miss Douglas music this year has once again been a credit to Vic High.

As usual there were the Mixed Choir, Girls' Sextette and Boys Ensemble. The Sextette started the year off with an appearance at Velda Wille's Dance Review, following which they appeared with the Boys' Ensemble at the Christmas Carol Program in Metropolitan United Church. After the Circus, in the New Year, rehearsals commenced on the "Songs of the Hebrides," for the Annual Spring Concert. Soloing in this production were Art Anderson, Marlene Vance and Anne Firth.

Two of this year's vocalists, Marlene Vance and Bill Gaetz, performed at morning auditorium periods, while other outstanding artists, Bev Barnes, Bev Husband and Ivi-Anne Sulkes, rendered vocal selections throughout the term. At this year's Music Festival many of these students participated in solo numbers as well as the Girls' Chorus, and Boys' and Girls' Ensembles which supported Vic High's claim for recognition.

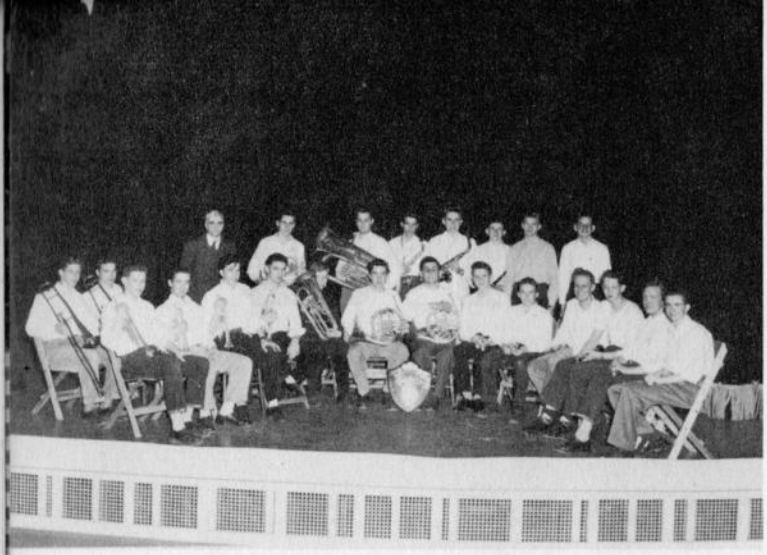
JAZZ CLUB

Boasting a record membership of one hundred the popular Vic High Jazz Club has enjoyed a most successful year.

President Barry Mills along with his executive composed of Bobby Hurst, Geo. Price and Isobel Jones have presented such notable performers as Victoria's own "Continentals," Ed Farey, Bill Garner, Hugh Curtis, and the popular "Men of Note."

With the help of their sponsor, Mr. Hunter, the club assisted in the February Circus by collecting and selling records and sheet music, which enabled them to contribute $150 to the Tennis Court Fund.

Striving to include students of every set, to further the understanding of this terrific field called "Modern Music," the '51-'52 Jazz Club has paved the way for even bigger and better clubs in years to come.



BAND

High on the list of our musical achievements this year was the formation of a school band.

Under the direction of Roland Grant the 22 members have practised arduously each week to add colour and interest to our morning assemblies. Their performances are greeted enthusiastically, for they present not only classical numbers, but also many popular and old-time favourites. Plans for the future may include radio transcriptions.

MODERN DANCE

With its clever interpretive performances, the Modern Dance Team again captured the fancy of the school. Under the direction of Miss S. Stanley this group reached a new high with its dance drama, "Dude Ranch," at the Spring Concert. Leading performers were Sue Harrison, Sheila Hardie, Gerry Koski, Chris Boyd and Pat Cameron. These girls were ably supported by Barbara Jones, Elaine Thomas, Pat Mackie, Lois Burns, Marina Fatt, Milly Briggs, Barbara Parlby, Vivien Lindstrom, Norma Greaves, Bernice Clark, Heather Sinclair, Bev Husband and Joan Simpson.

DANCE TEAM

Under the capable direction of Miss Sheila Stanley, the V.H.S. Dance Team again triumphed in square dancing which is still as popular as ever. The team made its formal debut with a performance at the Empress Hotel. At the Greater Victoria P.T. display in our own gymnasium, the group was one of the main participants in the square dance number. Swirling skirts and peasant blouses were worn by the girls; bright neckerchiefs and cowboy shirts, by the boys. The members of the team are: Vivian Lindstrom, Russ Bell, Bev Husband, Don Carlow, Pat Cameron, Brian Small, Dot Chu and Art Anderson.

SPORTS

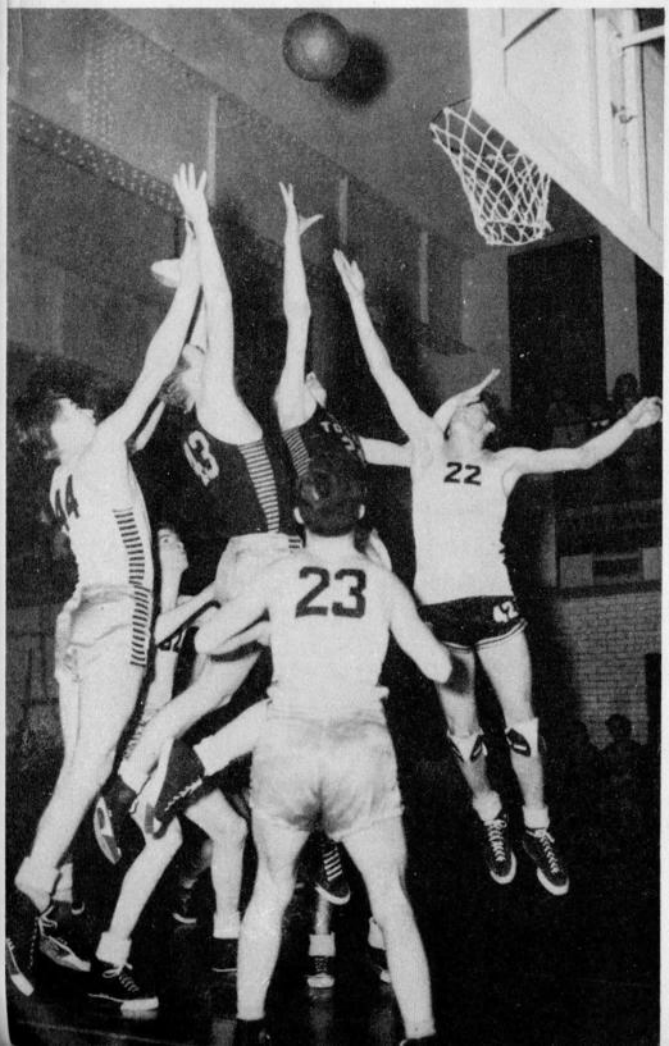
TOURNAMENT

The Second Annual Vancouver Island High School Basketball Tournament was held in the Vic High Gym March 14 and 15.

Eight teams representing major Island centres competed for the Colonist Cup which was won for the second consecutive time by Alberni. Vic High was second, losing by one point in the closing five seconds of play, while Mt. View was third.

Other teams were: Oak Bay, Esquimalt, Nanaimo, Cumberland and Cowichan.

Len Anderson was chosen guard for the second string of the Vancouver Island All-Star team.



Totems

This year's edition of the Totems left on the minds of the students an imprint that will be remembered for years to come. They didn't win the laurels in every tournament or league they entered, but they did afford the students who supported them plenty of thrills and excitement.

Under the guidance of Mr. G. Andrews, the Totems copped the Inter-Scholastic league without the loss of a game and grabbed a share of the Inter-High School crown by nipping Mount View, co-champions in the final game of the league schedule.

Playing inspired ball in the Vancouver Island Basketball tournament the Totems swept to the finals only to drop a thrilling one-point decision to the powerful Alberni High School cage quintet.

In the British Columbia High School basketball tournament, the Totems finished a creditable sixth and, but for a bad second quarter in their third game, would have finished in one of the top two positions.

Totem line-up follows:

Len Anderson: Guard. Captain of the squad and a steadying influence on defence. Always can be relied upon to hold the team together in tight scrapes.

Lorne Oakley: Guard. Partners with Anderson and forms a tough wall for any opposition to crack. "Oaks" is a good check and holds his man to a minimum number of points during a game.

Jim Jahraus: Centre. A steady performer under fire and can always be relied upon to grab his share of rebounds. Jim usually leads the team in scoring. Centre of B.C. all-star team.

Ted Whan: Guard. "Scrapper" is a battler down to the wire and gives his all from the opening whistle until the final bell. A good check.

John Shields: Forward. An aggressive player who asks no quarter. He instils a lot of drive with his spirited play and is good on rebounds. A good long shot.

George Dennison: Forward. One of the most improved players on the team; is looked upon to come into his own next year. A good check and always a steady performer.

Eddie Pederson: Centre or Forward. "Easy Ed" is another up-and-coming player in his first year of senior ball. Rapidly developing a wicked hook shot he should be one of the mainstays of next year's team.

Bob Zarry: Forward. A greatly improved player since the start of the season and should be one of the stalwarts of next year's team.

Marty Boylan: Guard. Smallest member on the team but offsets his lack of height with tricky ball-handling and a deadly shot.

Lowell Hodges: Guard. "Lefty" is another cool player under pressure and has a good one-hander. It was his first year with the Totems.

Pete Ash: Centre. Pete has come a long way since the beginning of the season, although only in Grade 11. Is rapidly developing a good hook shot and will be at his best next year.

Bob Abbott: Forward. Bob was out of action for a good part of the season with an injured knee, but came back near the end to play some good ball for the Totems. A good one-hander.

Laurie Woollett: Forward. Laurie is also much improved since the start of the campaign and has a valuable asset in height. Will be back next year.

Peter Kirchner: Forward. Pete is known around the campus for his uncanny two-handed set shot, which seldom misses. His first year with the Totems, but he has shown tremendous improvement.

Dave Worthy: Forward. Dave joined the Totems late in the season from the house league. Although he did not see much action, he is expected to be one of the bright spots in next year's edition.

Mr. G. Andrews: Coach. Came down from Alberni to take a teaching position with us this year. He has done a tremendous job with a comparatively new team and deserves a lot of credti for their fine showing.

Mr. L. Wallace: Manager. It was mainly through his efforts that the Totems had such a varied schedule. He arranges all the games against outside teams and deserves a bouquet of orchids for a fine job.

SENIOR BASKETBALL

Incorporating a new system, designed to give more boys an opportunity to run off their basketball ego, eight teams, two from each house, battled with lots of hustle, if not talent, for the honour of putting their house on top of the league. It was House IV which ended on top with 42 points, closely followed by House III with 39 points, House II with 36 and House I in the cellar with 26 points.

Teams squared off at lunch hour and after school and all concerned seemed to have a good time, although the odd player complained of indigestion after the lunch hour games. None of the Totems were permitted to play, but many of them were good enough to give up their time to referee.

The league on the whole was considered extremely successful and it is hoped it will be continued in future years.

JUNIOR BASKETBALL

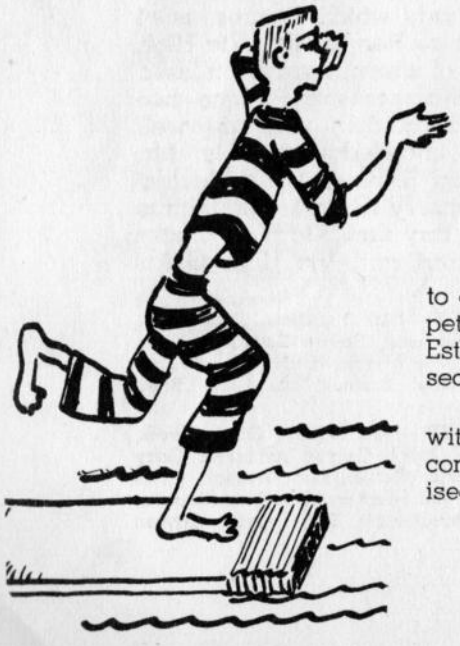
Guaranteeing a plentiful supply of future basketball material, Vic High's entries showed lots of fight and promise in the current season. The Blacks paced by Nelson Hughes, Noel Boston, Ted Harrison and coached by Mr. Glover ended in a third place deadlock with Mt. Douglas. Close behind, led by rangy bucket-man Paul Simpson and under the guidance of Mr. Lorimer were the Golds who tied with Esquimalt for fourth place. Undefeated Mt. View edged out Oak Bay to clinch the league title.

Blacks: Noel Boston, Walt Davis, Nelson Hughes, Ted Harrison, Bill Harris, Buddy Brice, Marvin Holman, Ed Kucey, Tommy Croft and Ted Crozier.

Golds: Bill Oldham, Malcolm MacMillan, Geoff Soong, Bill McKay, Chris Osselton, Buddy Rutherford.

VOLLEYBALL

The Inter-House volleyball schedule ran very smoothly this year, with much enthusiasm shown in all four houses. In the feminine league, House IV girls copped the junior and senior titles. In the boys' league, House II boys edged out House IV for the junior laurels. House I topped the senior boys with House II second. Volleyball continued to grow in popularity as a noon-hour pastime with an excellent turnout.



SWIMMING

For the first time in eight years Vic High swimmers bowed this year to a strong Oak Bay team in the annual Sir Edward Beatty trophy competition. Losing by only a few points such outstanding swimmers as Esther Mensen, Ann Haywood, Pete Kirchner and Garth Anderson secured second place for V.H.S.

In the Inter-House swimming gala a powerful House III placed first with House II second and Houses IV and I in that order. This inter-house competition uncovered many up-and-coming junior swimmers and promised better things for V.H.S. swimming teams in 1952.

Rep. Rugby

Senior A

Coached by Mr. Andrews, who started practices early this year in order to get his team in top shape with the hope of regaining the Howard Russell Cup, this year's V.H.S. squad emerged as one of the hardest hitting, hardest driving teams to represent Vic High in recent years.

The team defeated Shawnigan Lake twice, battled College to a draw, won one and lost one to Vancouver's Kitsilano High School, and defeated University School. After this commendable record the V.H.S. fifteen entered the Howard Russell Cup series against their traditional rivals, Oak Bay, only to tie the first two in heartbreaking games and to lose the third on a terrific field goal and lose the series to the Bays.

Senior B

This year's Senior B team coached by Mr. Hill has had a fair year in the Inter-school League as out of six games they won two, tied two and lost two. The teams entered in this league were Esquimalt, Mt. Doug, Mt. View and Vic High. Many of next year's "Rep" squad will come from these boys and should provide good material to choose from. The final league standings were Esquimalt and Mt. Doug tied for first, Vic High second and Mt. View third.

Bantam Rugby

The teams in this league were composed of boys who weighed 125 pounds and under who would otherwise have been unable to play because of their lack of weight. Mr. Swainson coached these spunky boys and did a good job with them although they finished last in their league. Esquimalt won the league, undefeated. Oak Bay were second and Vic High third. This novel league although in its growing stage, promises to be topnotch in future years.

Junior Rugby

With a crowd of enthusiastic junior rugby players this year Vic High was able to train two junior rugby squads which assures us of potential stars for future Rep teams. Vic High had two squads, one of which narrowly missed taking the league championship. These two teams were coached by men who are well supplied with rugby knowledge: namely, Mr. Wallis for House I and II (Blacks) and Mr. McLagan for House III and IV (Golds). The league standings were: Oak Bay first, Vic High Blacks second, Esquimalt third and Vic High Golds fourth.

BLACKS (House I and II)—Dick Herkham, Peter Coleman, Don Garrett, Ted Harrison, Dallas Greig, Ed Keir, Bob Beattie, Ted Crozier, Bill Harris, Bud Price, Walter Davis, Norman Curran, Noel Bosten, Tom Croft, Boyd Cooper, Tom Alexander.

CROSS-COUNTRY CLUB

After a bang-up season last year Vic High's cross-country team continued their torrid pace of last term and ran their way into student hearts with many outstanding races.

Plucky Pete Kirchner, from his pace-setting position, led the V.H.S. team to track superiority in such races as the Royal Roads Invitational, the University School gala event, and the sensational U.B.C. race which saw our "Islanders" defeat the high-flying mainlanders in a thrilling upset.

Reliable veteran Dick Wood continued his fine track displays and proved to be one of the club's better runners.

Newcomer Mike Chambers, a progressive campaigner, soon became invaluable and could easily be rated as the most improved member.

Harold Robinson, dark-horse of the team, astonished the experts with his hidden talent in many events.

Tireless aspirants, Leon Goudal and Jack Lawrence, kept up the pace and came through the season with flying colors.

Sophomores proved to be the main body of the squad. Lanky Bill Oldham, John Latham, Bill Bullivant and Don Thompson performed capably and will form the nucleus of next year's team. These ardent hopefuls of Mr. Hartley turned out rain or shine to prove their worth.

ATHLETIC MANAGERS

While Sid Bell and Danny Lore managed all individual point records for the '51-'52 season, Gerry Bilou, assisted by Bill Summerville, Jack Davis, Colin Trousdale and Dick Dickenson, was in charge of athletic equipment and locker systems.

We thank these hard-working boys for the cheerful and efficient way in which they carried out their jobs.

Rep. Soccer

Rep Team Tried Hard—Failed to Finish

Although dogged by bad luck throughout most of their games, the Rep soccer team managed a .500 average for the season, and would have clinched a Colonist Cup berth but for a bad day at Oak Bay.

Obviously off form in their final game, the Fernwood eleven put up a terrific battle before succumbing to the speedier Oak Bay squad 4 to 2.

Rankled by defeat, coaches and players are already making preparations for the recapture of the battered mug.

COLONIST CUP SOCCER TEAM PERSONALS

1. Herb Wetheral—A tower of strength on the half line, "Herbie" captained this year's squad.
2. Chummie Crabbe—Always dangerous, Chummy scored our first goal of the year.
3. Jim Harrison—"Sure-footed" Jim led our offensive all year.
4. Len Anderson—Classy fullback, says he feels more at home in goal.
5. Ronnie Lou Poy—Flashy net custodian.
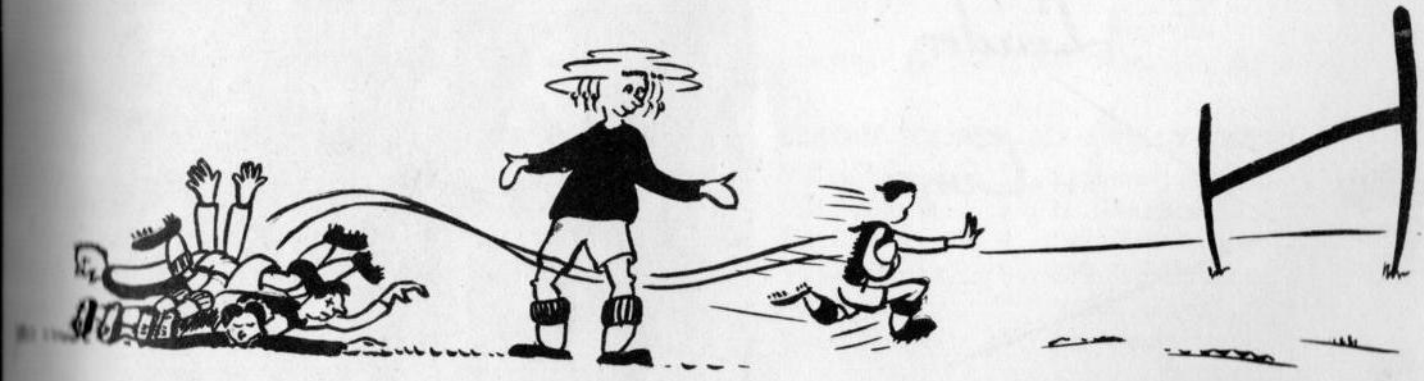
6. Bob Abbott—Big Bob hit top form this year; sterling fullback.
7. Lorne Oakley—Always on top of the ball, "Annie" came through when the chips were down.
8. Bill Abbott—Stone wall on defence; ambidextrous Bill also played on the forward line.
9. Ian Holroyd—"Headiest" player on the club; relies on brains instead of brawn.
10. Ted Harrison—Another veteran, played sparkling ball all year.
11. Jack Willoughby—Speedy wingman, sure to be outstanding next year.
12. Barry Jenner—Third year on Colonist Cup squad; added a lot of "punch" to the team.



BADMINTON CLUB

The Badminton Club led by President Pat Wright, Vice-President Mike Atkins and Secretary Chris Boyd, enjoyed an increased popularity this year. Beginners soon learned the basic fundamentals of badminton as Mr. Heywood gave valuable instruction in the "do's" and "don'ts" early in the season. There was a membership of over 50 this year and about seventy-five students took part in the Annual Vic High Badminton Tournament. Outstanding players were Chris Boyd, Viola Yetman, Pat Wright, Ken Birch, Ken Yingling, Ian Parker and Mike Atkins.

BOWLING CLUB

In its first year as an organized group, the Bowling Club attracted a membership of over 40 enthusiasts. Team matches were held Saturday mornings, the team captains setting the pace.

We anticipate a greater year for this newly formed club in '53.

Sonya Shulkes and Maureen Scoular—Student coaches who helped us keep our equipment together.

The Blacks won the City Championship by regaining the May Tulley Shield from our arch rivals, Oak Bay High. For the first time in V.H.S. history, after a gruelling match with Norfolk House, with whom we tied, the team copped the Bridgman Cup, symbolic of Island Grass Hockey supremacy.

The junior team, the Golds, was coached by Mrs. De la Mare, who inspired the players through a successful season.

GOLDS HOCKEY TEAM: Janet Jones, Janet Allan, Nan Baxter, Joanne Milley, Lou Cross, Carmel de Montiguy, Sharon Green, Jean Sleight, Carol Eastwood, Mary Malden Myrna Barr.

Exam Time

Study, the toil of our lives, is on.
Soon for this year the exams are gone,
And we are left waiting, waiting in vain
Wondering if? Did we lose or gain?

Not worried now, there is plenty of time
So I sit here idly writing this rhyme,
Wasting my thoughts in useless ways.
Too soon, I'm afraid the dreaded days

Will come before us with a challenge bold
And our fears will return as fears of old.
"Tomorrow's the exam and I didn't study,
Can't find my notes and my brain feels muddy.

The show that's on is good tonight
I'd promised to go, I am in a plight.
I phone my friend and take my book,
I'LL PASS THIS EXAM BY HOOK OR BY CROOK!

I'm off to school, can't write or think,
My pencil breaks, my pen has no ink,
My head is pounding, I've guessed at most,
Now it is over, my shadow and ghost.

Struggle homeward. The panic is there,
I've flunked, I know I shouldn't care,
Never tried 'til much too late,
Guess I pass with Class '68.

READING AND WRITING AND ———
OR
THINGS THAT MAKE LIFE MISERABLE

Some hate economics, some, calisthenics,
But mostly, I hate mathematics.
The three R's they are named,
And am I to be blamed
If fractions and addition drills
Combined make me feel ill?
Oh, what I wouldn't give,
To slip, like water through a sieve
Away from wearisome mental chores,
To peaceful lakeside shores!
Readin' and writin' I don't mind at all,
But arithmetic begins to pall
When the summer sun beckons,
And still I'm trying to reckon
The price of each tenth, to the per centage of a cent.

In the parlor there were three—
She, the parlor lamp, and he.
Two is company, no doubt,
And so the little lamp went out.

Last night I held a little hand,
So dainty and so neat;
I thought my heart would surely burst,
So wildly did it beat.

No other hand into my soul
Could greater gladness bring,
Than that I held last night—
Which was "four aces and a king."

THE ROAD OF LIFE

I sit on the step of my poor abode
And think of those who tread the road,
Some are rich and some are poor,
Ever-never wanting more
As they tread the road of life.

The memories will never fade
Of those who tread the road God made,
The poor who give without a care
Shall have a soul and heart to bear
As they tread the road of life.

The rich who did not share their wealth
And thought of nought except of self;
These will not have a soul to wear
When to God their sins they bear,
Having trod the road of life.

A Day in Div. 24's File

The stars have gone out and the sun is just waking,
When I jump out of bed still sleepy and shaking,
I grab for my pants and tangle my feet;
Ma yells from the kitchen "get a move on, let's eat."

I gulp down my breakfast, give my hair a quick part,
Hurry down to my bike, then call upon Art,
We frantically pedal, the time is eight-ten,
To our lockers we roar; Art looks for his pen.

There's Kucey in the corridor, he's nearly late too,
Here comes Tucker, still dreaming, he's forgotten a shoe,
We scramble for the classroom, we're one minute late,
Who's standing there yelling? Could it be Mr. Tait?

Our first periods are over, we all hurry out,
Although boring we're learning and that's beyond doubt.
We climb up the stairs and of course being boys,
The day wouldn't seem right without plenty of noise.

Our next victim at the blackboard is busily writing,
While down at the back are two boys merrily fighting,
As I dream, the bell rings, it encourages wrath,
Around the track comes a teacher; we gotta have math.

Our math period is over, we've learned a good lot,
The next period is English; we're off at a trot,
We are all feeling frisky, our hearts very gay,
Next Period is lunch-time, then we're off and away.

Period five passes quickly, as well as does six,
Then comes period seven, we're all in a fix,
A class detention for no reason at all,
It is cancelled, we're happy and rush out in the hall.

We battle our way down to the first floor,
Tidy up our lockers, then out the side door,
Another day has ended, it was better than before,
Because you can't beat a working team which is Div. 24.

HIS SOLO FLIGHT—TO G. R.

He loved the clouds, those snow white mists,
His young heart yearned their depths to kiss.
He knew and loved God's own blue home,
From that he knew he could not roam.

So young, so free, so wanting joy,
A silent, yet adventurous boy.
He lived to fly with birds untamed,
The Lord observed, his soul he claimed.

He is gone, his beloved sky to meet.
Please guard him well, oh Angels sweet.

School these days is light and gay,
Teachers don't boss, they pave the way.
Pupils absorb it on their own,
If they don't pass, 'tis their's to moan.

Sports 'n music, drama 'n dancing,
Jazz 'n movies and romancing,
Cokes 'n fun, and souped-up cars,
And, incidentally, the three little R's.
